

Dear Sirs: I would like to comment on the FCC implementing a proposal to lessen Indiana's Privacy Law protection. Since this Telephone privacy act has been implemented, the number of phone calls received at NIGHT by me has lessend drastically, therefore, allowing my evenings/weekends at home to be non-interuppted by unwanted sollicitaion phone calls. Please leave Indiana's law alone, for the peace and quiet of all involved. Thank You, Rita Smith